

2nd Slaveries and the Atlantization of the Americas

Colloquium, July 12-14, 2012, SR 010, University of Cologne

Sponsored by the Department of Iberian and Latin American History, Universität zu Köln, Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG, Bonn), the Fernand Braudel Center for the Study of Economies, Historical Systems and Civilizations, Binghamton University (New York), the Society for Continental American and Caribbean Studies (Vienna)

PROGRAM

Thursday, July 12

7 pm: Colloquium opening

Friday, July 13

10 am:

Dale Tomich (Binghamton University, USA),
Michael Zeuske (University of Cologne, Germany):
Introductory Words

11 am - noon:

Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch (University Paris Diderot Paris7):
"African slaves and Atlantic metissage. A periodization 1400-1880"

Noon - 1 pm:

Robin Blackburn (University of Essex, UK):
"Profitable but Challenged: the Economics and Morality of the New World Slave Systems"

1-3 pm: Break

3-4 pm:

Dale Tomich (Binghamton University, USA):
"Commodity Frontiers and the Crisis of Colonial Slavery 1783-1866"

4-5 pm:

Enrico Dal Lago (National University of Ireland):

"The End of the 'Second Slavery' in the Confederate South and the 'Great Brigandage' in Southern Italy: Some Comparative Suggestions"

5.30-6.30 pm:

Film presentation "Caribbean Journey: Conversations with Sidney Mintz"

Opening remarks by Dale Tomich

Saturday, July 14

10-11 am:

Rafael de Bivar Marquese (Universidade de São Paulo, Brazil):

"Capitalism, Slavery, and the Brazilian Coffee Economy in the Long Nineteenth Century ("Capitalismo, escravidão e economia cafeeira do Brasil no longo século XIX")"

11 am - noon:

Javier Laviña (Universitat de Barcelona, Spain):

"Los inicios de la Atlantización en la segunda esclavitud en Puerto Rico, siglo XVIII"

Noon - 1 pm:

Luiza Franco Moreira (Binghamton University, USA):

"The aftermath of abolition: Distortions of the Historical Record in Machado de Assis: 'Counselor Aires' Memorial'"

1-3 pm: Break

3-4 pm:

Wazir Mohamed (Indiana University East, USA):

"Peasant or Proletarian: Emancipation and the struggle for Freedom in British Guiana in the shadow of the Second Slavery"

4-5 pm:

Christian Cwik (University of Cologne, Germany):

"The end of the British Atlantic slave trade or the beginning of the big slave robbery, 1808-1850"

5 pm:

Michael Zeuske (University of Cologne, Germany):

"Conclusion: 2nd Slaveries and Atlantization"

5.30 pm: Closing